Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 4/4/03.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

This is the fifth Office Action for serial number 09/582,253, Connecting Device, filed on June 22, 2000. Claims 13-20 are pending.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: in the Abstract, on line 3, "al" should be --at--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over French Patent 1,559,036A to Dom Holdings LTD (Dom Holdings) in view of GB 2315090 to Smith. With regards to claims 13-16, Dom Holdings discloses a connecting device (Figs. 1-3) comprising: a U-shaped first part (1) having a base (3 generally) fixable to a surface and two arms (4,5 generally) extending therefrom, each arm including a channel (formed by 9 and 10) therein and on an outer face thereof, the channel having a tooth (disposed between 9 and 10) disposed therein; and a U-shaped second part (2) having a base (at 11) with two arms (12, 13) extending from opposite ends thereof, each arm having a tooth (14) on an inner face thereof, the second part (2) being slidably attachable to the first part (1) so as to be slidable along the longitudinal axis of a pipe and forming at least a partial enclosure for the pipe; wherein the first and second parts have co-operating teeth enabling the attachment of the second part (2) to the first part (1) to be selectively adjustable, whereby spacing of the pipe from the surface is adjustable. Dom Holdings does not teach the first and second parts including co-operating formations limiting movement of the second part (2) relative to the first part (1) in a given direction along the longitudinal axis of the pipe, but permitting the movement of the second part (2) relative to the first part (1) in an opposite direction along the longitudinal axis of the pipe, once the second part (2) has been slidably attached to the first part (1). Smith discloses a clamp (see attached marked copy of Fig. 6a) comprising a second part (32) slidably connected to a first part (31), wherein the first and second parts include co-operating formations (31b, 32a) limiting movement of the second part (32) relative to the first part (31) along a longitudinal axis (in the direction indicated by the arrow) but permits the movement of the second part (32) relative to the first part (31) in an opposite direction along the axis. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the first and second parts (1, 2) to include co-operating formations for limiting movement of the second part relative to the first part in a given direction along the longitudinal axis of the pipe because one would have been motivated to prevent axial displacement of the first and second parts as disclosed and inherently taught by Smith. Regarding claims 17-19, Dom Holdings does not disclose the second part (2) including series of teeth (14) on the inner surface thereof. However, It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the first and second parts to include a plurality/series of teeth on their respective surfaces since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 4/4/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments do not comply with 37 CFR 1.111(c) because they do not clearly point out the patentable novelty which he or she thinks the claims present in view of the state of the art disclosed by the references cited or the objections made. Further, they do not show how the amendments avoid such references or objections.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

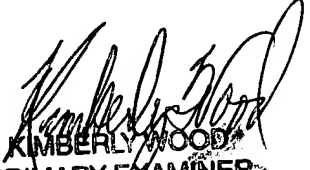

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
